Executive Department,
Land Commissioner's Office,
Columbia, S. C., August 11, 1869.
NOTICE is hereby given that this Office is now organized, in accordance with the law creating the same, and is ready to proceed to business.
In the purchase of Lands the interests of the State will be carefully guarded. It is the desire of the Commissioner to purchase none other than good Lands, in good localities, at their fair market value, and at such prices as the same Lands would be sold to private individuals. Arrangements have been made by which the Bonds authorized to be issued for the purchase of Lands will be converted to currency, and Lands so purchased will be paid for in currency. The Commissioner invites all parties owning desirable Lands, in desirable localities, wishing to sell them, and willing to take market prices, to forward their proposals, giving a description of the Lands for sale, their locality, quality and adaptation to the production of cotton, corn and grains generally, with a view to the commencement of negotiations for the sale of said Lands to the State.
